

Intexus, with more than 27 years of experience, protects the identity and data of individuals and organizations with identity, identification, payments and data protection solutions for public and private sector organizations throughout Latin America.

Our experience, human team and key partners have led the company to grow its portfolio with innovative solutions for the digital identity of people, integrating advanced biometric technology and artificial intelligence to verify the identity of a person in seconds and make onboarding and authentication processes free of fraud and guarantee a 100% secure interaction between companies and people.

<https://intexus.la/en/>