

Veolia is a French transnational company with activities in three main areas of environmental services focused on water management, waste management and energy services. It has 218,000 employees in 57 countries.

<https://www.veolia.com/en>